Meet Your New Head Golf Pro — Chris Benson

Chris is a Cambridge, WI native. He grew up on the fairways of LRCC with his family and friends. He played high school golf for the Cambridge Blue Jays, was 3 years All State, and WIAA

Division III State Golf Champion his senior year in 2002. In that same timespan, he also worked through the ranks as an employee of LRCC; from a busser, to dishwasher, to bartender, eventually teaching the game as an assistant professional.

Chris worked for Lake Ripley Country Club for 10 seasons. In 2006, he left LRCC to pursue different opportunities in the golf business and found himself in Myrtle Beach, SC for a season at the Legends Golf Resort. While there, he entered into the PGA PGM program with the PGA of America. Next, his family took him north to Chaska, MN and Hazeltine National Golf Club. Chris spent 3 seasons at Hazeltine, managing corporate outings, the caddie and junior golf programs, along with numerous other aspects of the club. He also had the opportunity to work as a locker room manager for the 2009 PGA Championship, and put his touch on service for the best in the world. He has worked the last few seasons at Mississippi Dunes Golf Links in Cottage Grove, MN, and at White Eagle Golf Club in Hudson, WI, as the Director of Instruction. Teaching now for over a decade, and a class A member of the PGA of America since 2013, Chris can help anyone's game from beginner to scratch. Check out the vast array of services Chris is offering to the LRCC members in the newsletter insert and help us welcome Chris back to Cambridge — back to his home at LRCC.
